

Bonner Civic Leadership Framework

WE BELIEVE...	CHARACTERISTICS	COMPETENCIES	ACTION
...civic/social responsibility recognizes our increasingly diverse and interdependent world and is deeply rooted in fostering an ethical commitment and sense of responsibility to others, with a focus on the common good. ...engaging across difference promotes an awareness of the interdependence between self and society, which serves to humanize others and build vibrant communities.	Civic (Social) Responsibility Diversity of Dialogue and Interactions	Civic Identity Diversity and Intercultural Competence Communication Skills Empathy Social Justice	Follow through on commitments Effective Communication
...humility is grounding one's worth in our intrinsic value as human beings.	Healthy Humility	Empathy Critical Thinking and Perspective Taking	Critical Self-Reflection
...integrative learning connects relevant experience and academic knowledge through reflection in order to deepen understanding and broaden one's own points of view.	Integrative Learning	Integrative Learning	Active Participation
...having a shared purpose allows you to be a co-creator in your community. It fosters curiosity and discovery, a sense of connectedness and belonging, and teaches one how to make a difference through leadership and collaboration.	Shared Purpose	Leadership	Collaboration
...that one's public contribution puts identity and place in context, which helps one to learn about social issues and develop a sense of civic agency.	Public Contribution	Place- and Issue-Based Knowledge Social Justice Civic Agency	Direct Service Knowledge/Skills