Bethany Outreach Center 254 East Tenth Street, Erie, PA 16503 (814) 456-6254 http://bethanyoutreachcenter.org/	Bethany is the Hub Center for social service connections. We reach out to our neighborhood with open arms and are a family to those who are lonely, unloved and misunderstood. We do our best to empower our low-income families through various enrichment classes so that they may find jobs and fulfillment. * The first is Bethany Storytime for children ages 3 – 9. This program provides an environment where children can regularly be exposed to age-appropriate wholesome stories that will encourage them to want to read and learn by those who want to share their love of reading – especially for those families in our area where parents are not proficient with reading English aloud and would like the help. Besides reading, this program also includes working with crafts and other learning activities in a community setting that enables children and families to interact with each other. During each session, outside programs/agencies in the area that support early childhood education/reading are promoted with

	brochures and registration forms and help given to parents to sign up. * The second is the IMPACT Teen program for teens ages 13-18. This program provides a safe place for doing homework and use of our computers, as well as motivational speakers, educational and vocation-related speakers and classes. On certain nights, the teens' families come together for special presentations and social interaction. A hot meal is served at all of the sessions.
