

MASTER OF INTERNATIONAL AFFAIRS

Whether you're a future diplomat, business executive, or NGO leader, our Master of International Affairs (MIA) program will prepare you for a wide array of career opportunities in the global marketplace. This program is a joint effort between the world-renowned O'Neill School of Public and Environmental Affairs and the Hamilton Lugar School of Global and International Studies, the national leader in language and area studies. Together, these schools deliver the practical skills and in-depth knowledge to succeed and lead in internationally oriented careers.

Combining a rigorous, best-in-class education with competitive tuition rates, affordable cost of living, and graduation in just three semesters, our program offers a uniquely economical and valuable path into a successful career in international affairs. This means you can graduate in as little as one calendar year with the experience, skills, and knowledge to make a lasting impact on the world.

CONCENTRATIONS

Choose a pathway that allows you to focus on your passion. You can further tailor your degree through your choice of electives within each of our three multidisciplinary concentrations.

- Security, Diplomacy, and Governance
- Finance and Trade
- Global Development, Environment, and Sustainability

If your area of interest lies outside our existing offerings, we'll work with you to design a concentration that best fits your career goals.

EXPERIENTIAL LEARNING

With support from both O'Neill School and Hamilton Lugar School career services, as well as faculty and alumni, we can help you secure a meaningful internship and experiential learning opportunities across the U.S. and abroad. Combined with a rigorous curriculum, the hands-on experience gained through internships will help jumpstart your career as a leader in international affairs.

PERSONALIZED APPROACH

The MIA was designed to deliver a tight-knit experience with your cohort. As a result, you'll make connections that last a lifetime. You'll also receive one-on-one attention and mentorship from our world-renowned faculty, recognized as the top experts on international affairs. These relationships serve to enhance your experience in the program and give you the support needed to reach higher levels of success.

"The fate of our planet requires global leaders who are well trained to navigate our ever-changing and complex world. The MIA program is designed to capture the best of the O'Neill School and Hamilton Lugar School to foster career-ready practitioners with the theory, knowledge, and practical skills to have a successful international career with a lasting impact for the greater good."
